I have commissioned an original bronze statue by Willis Clark, retired CEO of Central Soya. I know we rarely collect modern items, but his price is affordable; he is a Hoosier and a Fort Waynian; and it is a bronze. Most of sculpture is plaster and most of the pieces in storage are damaged because they are plaster. Julie, upon seeing the clay mold, may order resin copies to sell in the store. Will may be willing to make or present a program on sculpting AL as a part of this commission. Joan
